- III. In the case of lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.
- IV. The purchasers to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down 10s. in the pound, if required, in part payment of the purchase-money ; in default of which the lot or lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- V. The lots to be taken away, at the buyer's expense, immediately after the conclusion of the sale ; in default of which Messrs. All the manuscripts, autographs, all magazines and reviews, all books in lots, and all tracts in lots or volumes, will be sold with all faults, imperfections, and errors of description. The sale of any illustrated book, lot of prints or drawings, is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or error of description.
- VIII. No IMPERFECT BOOK will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each book, stating its imperfections, with the number of lot and date of the sale at which the same was purchased.
- IX. To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale.
- X. Upon failure of complying with the above conditions, the money required and deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited ; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such lots as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale.

END OF SALE.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket of the car. I looked around, trying to get my bearings. The street was empty, the only sound being the distant hum of traffic. I felt a little lost, but then I remembered where I was. I took a deep breath and walked forward, my feet hitting the cold pavement. The air was crisp, and I felt a sense of freedom. I was alone, and that was exactly what I needed. I walked until I reached the end of the street, where I saw a small, old building. I walked up to the door, which was slightly ajar. I pushed it open and stepped inside. The interior was dark, but I could see a small table and a chair. I sat down, feeling a sense of peace. I closed my eyes and took a deep breath. The world outside was gone, and I was alone with my thoughts. I felt a sense of calm, a sense of being home. I stayed there for a while, just sitting and thinking. The world was quiet, and I was at last.
